Roger Bourgeois

Superintendent-Director

To the Class of 2017,

As the Superintendent-Director of the Greater Lowell Technical School District, it is my pleasure to congratulate you on your graduation from our outstanding vocational technical high school.

As I mentioned in my comments at graduation, my message to you is an important one of perseverance and resilience.

You are graduates of a very special school and recipients of a very unique education. You have earned both an academic diploma and a vocational technical certificate which indicates your readiness for both college and career.

However, the next step is up to you. What are you going to do with the academic, vocational, and technical education that you have received? You certainly have many options and I am sure that you have given all of them a lot of thought. I am also quite certain that your options will continue to change as you continue to learn, grow, and evolve as a person.

So my message to you as you continue on a journey that began as a freshman in August of 2013 is to persevere and to be resilient.

You can accomplish great things if you are willing to challenge yourself and work hard. Please do not take the easy road. You are in control of your future and you can make it whatever you want it to be.

Do not underestimate your abilities and never be afraid of failure. It is when we fall short of our goals that the greatest opportunity to learn and grow presents itself. Although it is disappointing when we fail, what's most important is how we handle it and what we do about it. This is what it means to persevere and be resilient.

As members of the Class of 2017 you represent the future of our community, our commonwealth, and our nation and I am confident that our future is in good hands.

Congratulations Class of 2017!

Sincerest best wishes,
